

For the second year in a row PLU have been shortlisted in the prestigious Food & Travel Magazine Reader Awards!

This year our lone Chef, Elliot Moss, has been shortlisted in the CHEF OF THE YEAR category!

And there is still time to register your vote to help him win, at www.foodandtravel.com/awards

He may not be as famous as the other chefs but can any of the other chefs boast that they do it all themselves? Most restaurants have a team of chefs in the kitchen, here at PLU we have Elliot!

Chef Elliot Moss makes each & every dish - from the canapés to the petits fours - on his 15 course tasting menu all by himself. Not only does he do all of the cooking & menu creations he also does all of the prep' work too, from peeling potatoes, cleaning mushrooms, salads & herbs, grating cheese and stoning olives to making the stocks that then become the base for each of his delicious sauces.
